RETURNS HERE

David Conry, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Conry, 2530 Lesserman Ave., who is with the army and has been stationed at Fort Bliss near El Paso, Tex., arrived yesterday by plane to begin his duties in Manhattan Beach. His wife has been making her home here with his parents while he has been in Texas.

Woman's Club

Ralph McNeil, Earl A. Miles, James Stavert, F. P. Foley, R. J. Triplitt, Alan Moore, Paul Vonderahe, William Blakeney, Paul Loranger, Arthur Moss, Grant Barkdull, L. W. Ballard, Grover C. Van Deventer, K. D. Figgins, C. L. Porter, and W. C. Moyer.

During the business session, the 1956-57 budget was presented and accepted.

Mrs. D. J. Thomsen, junior coordinator, announced that the joint civic project for the senior and junior clubs had been selected, the new Scout Center, to which a pledge of $1,000 has been made. The ways and means project for this is the annual Christmas card sale for which Mrs. Thomsen solicited the support of the entire membership.

Announcement of the fashion show to be staged by the club on Nov. 17 at a Hollywood Riviera restaurant was also made and tickets were distributed.

BRILLIANT PROGRAM
After the business meeting, Mrs. Dean Sears, program chairman presented three artists in one of the most delightful musical programs ever enjoyed by the club.

Miss Delores Davis, soprano, Robert Thomas, tenor and Ernest St. John Metz held their audience in rapt attention with their varied repertoire.

The trio opened their program with a group of melodies from Kismet displaying an unusual brilliance and drawing a manifest appreciation from the audience.

Miss Davis, with an appealing personality, sang a Polish folk song followed by a negro spiritual solo by Mr. Thomas.

The enjoyable program was closed with the first act from La Boheme narrated by Ernest St. John Metz.

Jesterettes Entertain Muab Ive

Jesterettes of La Lakeh Ive of Torrance entertained the Muab Ive of Pacific Palisades Monday evening at the La Venta Inn for a delicious dinner followed by a delightful party. A beautiful fall flower arrangement was the centerpiece for the head table and smaller floral arrangements and candles on the other tables.

Place cards were arranged for the following guests: Addie Parks, directress of Muab Ive; Vivian Cook, directress of La Lakeh Ive; Bettina Miller, Bernice Ruppel, Mae Jones, Alice Ruppel, Alice Slater, Ann Atkinson, Jane Gaylord, Francis Reiser, Margaret Hatch, Syble Moffitt, Katherine Bowman, Ethyl Peverley, Flossie Ulven, Frances Peverley, Fern Engel, Phyllis Peverley, Eva Eichholtz, Ruth Peaso and Olive Shepler and Helen Flowers, visitors from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Bernice Ruppel had charge of the decorations and Phyllis Peverley had planned the entertainment. Prizes were won by Katherine Bowman, Flossie Ulven, Ruth Peaso, Frances Reiser, Mae Jones, Margaret Hatch, Ethyl Peverley and Helen Flowers.

During the evening Vivian Cook announced that their group of Jesterettes had been to the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children Saturday and had taken a complete tour through the hospital and presented them with a remembrance of 36 dish towels hand embroidered with the Jesterettes' emblem in one corner and 12 dozen wash cloths. It was a beautiful place and doing such worth-while things for children of all races, creeds and religion. They are planning another project to assist the hospital for the following months.

P T A ACTIVITIES

Halldale

"Riches to Share" is the theme for the Halldale PTA meeting Thursday, Oct. 11 at the auditorium. Principal speaker will be from the Community Chest, who will outline the various organizations that depend on the chest for their funds to operate.

"Rockets Away to PTA" is the theme, as the membership drive gets under way Oct. 8, with Mrs. Judson Bowers, membership chairman, and Judson Bowers, men's chairman. Each room will be trying to reach Mrs. by Oct. 12 on their Rock et. All rooms reaching Mrs. will be treated to movie cartoons as a prize.

Mrs. E. N. Reese, PTA president, announced that the board had ratified the appointment of W. L. Harvey as juvenile protection chairman. Mr. Harvey is with the Los Angeles Police Dept.

Plans are underway for the Halloween Capers to be held at the school Wednesday, Oct. 31.

223rd Street

September is the ever busy school month and 223rd St. School is no exception. The enrollment tallied 920 students, an increase of 120 students over the 800 who enrolled when the school opened last Feb. 2. Opening of new housing developments is expected to swell this figure, announced Elizabeth J. Danky, school principal.

On hand the first day to greet the new kindergarten mothers and offer coffee and doughnuts, were 223rd St. PTA members. Those serving were Mmes. Jay Carroll, George LaMontagne, C. W. Bartholomew, Robert Bree, Jack C. Cameron, Donald F. Guild, Harry Hill, Edward Kollmeyer, Carl F. Laursen, Gene LeRoy, Wallace McLeay and Ralph Wareing. Assisting with registration were Mmes. Willis T. Albaugh, Francis Anania, James Gonderman, David P. Goolsby, Paul Kelso, Donald King, and A. A. Venable.

With an enrollment reaching such a figure, Mrs. A. A. Venable and Mrs. Donald King membership chairmen anticipate more than 100% cooperation in the membership drive which is scheduled to run Oct. 8 through Oct. 12.

Importance of proper dental care was explained to members of the 223rd St. PTA at the September meeting. Speaker was Dr. Alice Kininger, acting chief dentist of the dental section of health education and health service branches of Los Angeles City Schools.

Dr. Kininger spoke on the prevention of tooth decay and told the chief cause of decay, namely, poor selection of foods and improper cleansing.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Danky, school principal, welcomed the parents and told of activities at the school. The playground is open daily from 3 to 5 p.m. Jack Mahnkens is the director.

School nurse Helen McKenzie announced that diphtheria and tetanus booster shots will be given at the school Oct. 30 for all children. Polio shots will be offered in the spring.

Mrs. David P. Goolsby, president, introduced the members of her board. She invited parents to join the PTA.

Mrs. Carl F. Laursen, magazine chairman explained to parents the value received from subscribing to the California Parent-Teacher Magazine.

FERN-GREENWOOD

Final plans for the potluck dinner to be held Thursday, Oct. 11, at 6:30 in the Fern cafeteria were completed at the meeting of the executive board of the Fern-Greenwood PTA held last week. All members of the association and their families are invited to come meet the teachers and the executive board," announced Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, president.

A short business meeting will be held following the dinner featuring community singing, the Mothersingers, and Mrs. C. F. Rees, the guest speaker. Child care will be provided for the smaller children and a talent show for the older ones.

Mrs. P. L. Ogle, hospitality and courtesy chairman, asks each family to bring a hot dish, a salad, or a dessert, and their own dishes and silverware. Punch, coffee and hot rolls will be served.

Carl Steele

The special meeting of the Carl Steele PTA held Sept. 27, was interesting and informative to all those attending. President, Mrs. J. R. Erving, introduced the guest speaker, Sam Waldrup, from the Torrance Board of Education. He talked on the state school loan proposal and an override tax to be voted on Oct. 9. He stated that there will be 32,000 to 35,000 youngsters in the Torrance school district in 10 years.

The endorsement of the state loan proposal, by the executive board of Carl Steele PTA, was read by Mrs. B. Pierce, secretary.

The workshop for officers and chairmen of the Torrance PTA was attended by several of the Carl Steele members. It was held Sept. 18, at the First Baptist Church, Torrance, and was presided over by Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, council president. The inspirational message was given by Rev. Nathan Harrel-Bond. Guest speaker, Sam Waldrup, was introduced by Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance school district.

STORK CLUB IS FORMED AT Y

A new Stork Club will be formed at the YWCA at 8 p.m. Oct. 9 with Mrs. Dorie Alles, instructor.

The object of the course is to prepare the mother physically and emotionally for childbirth. This is done in informal discussions, pictures, and demonstrations.

The course covers anatomy and physiology of pregnancy and delivery, relaxation techniques, exercises to help relieve the common discomforts of pregnancy, exercises and training for labor and delivery, post-natal exercises for muscle restoration, and one session for fathers and mothers.
